REMARKS

All claims have been allowed. Examiner has objected to the specification in that it refers to a SPEED SQUARE, which Examiner notes is a trademark. While no registration of this mark could be found, and a World Wide Web search showed many generic uses of the term, other evidence indicates that this may be a common law mark of Swanson. Therefore, use of the term throughout the application has been replaced by "framing square" and a sentence of explanation was added to the first paragraph describing the prior art on page 1 at line 10.

In view of the overcome objections above, it is that the application is now in condition for allowance.

Respectfully submitted,
